EASTERN UNIVERSITY, SRI LANKA
POLICY FRAMEWORK FOR GENDER
EQUITY / EQUALITY

EASTERN UNIVERSITY, SRI LANKA POLICY FRAMEWORK FOR GENDER EQUITY / EQUALITY (effective from January, 2016).

01. Background

Gender inequalities and violence including that of sexual and gender-based violence in the Universities have been reported as significant shortcomings in the Sri Lankan University System. (UGC; CARE & FUTA 2015). University Grants Commission (UGC) has recognized that without addressing these deep rooted inequalities and inequities within the system, Sri Lankan Universities cannot genuinely consider themselves to be centres of academic excellence. Therefore the UGC has taken up the challenge to address these unresolved concerns by establishing a Centre for Gender Equity/Equality (GEE) in October 2015, so as to institute socially and gender-sensitive university sub-cultures and an environment of freedom and security that allows students and all university staff to pursue their study and work without discrimination and oppression. The UGC - GEE Centre will be managed directly under the UGC Standing Committee for Gender Equity/Equality. The Management structure of the UGC Centre for Gender Equity/Equality upto the University level is given below.

02. Commitment of EUSL

EUSL is committed to the promotion of Gender Equity/Equality (GEE) and women's empowerment where all students, academic, administrative and support staff, female and male, enjoy equal opportunities, human rights, and free from all forms of discrimination and harassment. As such members of the University community have the responsibility of ensuring that it is free from gender inequity and Sexual and Gender Based Violence (SGBV).

Thus EUSL policy on GEE is designed to promote equality between women and men; to eliminate unlawful discrimination and harassment; and to provide an inclusive working, learning and social environment in which the rights and dignity of all its staff and students are respected to assist them in reaching their full potential. The university will work to remove any barriers which might deter people of the highest ability from applying to EUSL as staff or students.

03. Policy Framework

The policy seeks to create a framework that will assist the university to encourage gender equity/ equality in all staff and student activities, ensure equitable participation and appropriate representation of both genders in all its decision making process and prevent Sexual and Gender-Based Violence (SGBV).

03.1. Scope of the Policy

The policy establishes the basis for EUSL cooperation with the Government and society at large to promote equality between women and men.

This policy applies to all members of the university, including students, employees, visitors, any individuals regularly or temporarily employed, studying, living, visiting, conducting business, or having any official capacity at the university.

This policy also applies to off-campus conduct that is likely to have a substantial adverse effect on any member of the university community or university.

03.2. Overarching Policy Statement

Achieving gender equality and non-discrimination in educational and work environment for all staff and students is a strategic objective of EUSL. The university explicitly plans to integrate gender as a cross-cutting issue into both its core and support functions. EUSL is committed to lead the next generation on the way to securing equality of opportunity for women and men whether as students, staff members or external users of our facilities.

In realizing gender equality EUSL shall endeavor to do everything within its means not to overlook the diversities among and between members of EUSL community and prohibit sexual or gender based harassment. The policy recognizes gender education as a major pillar in the process of gender equality and women empowerment through transformative development process.

EUSL is committed to working with all its stakeholders within and outside the university guided by the strategic actions outlined here.
